

The Royal Borough of Kingston upon Thames

Tender for Corn Starch Liners for Kitchen Waste Containers

The Royal Borough is rolling out a new recycling and refuse collection service to houses, converted flats and maisonettes during Autumn 2008. The service will include the collection of kitchen waste from 23L containers. Tenders are invited from suitably experienced Suppliers to provide corn starch liners for the initial roll out to 45,000 properties and then to provide liners as required.

Along with their tenders, applicants will be required to submit details of their financial status, technical capabilities and resources, experience, health and safety and equal opportunities policies and environmental management systems.
