

KINGSTON BEREAVEMENT SERVICES

CORONER: PROCEDURE & DOCUMENTATION GUIDANCE

DEATH OCCURS AND IS REPORTED TO THE CORONER
Coroner takes no action	Post-mortem without inquest	Post-mortem with inquest
Procedure The Coroner decides that a post-mortem is unnecessary. The medical practitioner attending the deceased during the last illness then certifies the cause of death.	Procedure A post-mortem is held and depending on the cause of death the Coroner will decide if an inquest is necessary.	Procedure A post-mortem is held and an inquest will be opened. The inquest will usually be opened and adjourned to permit the burial or cremation.
DOCUMENTS BETWEEN CORONER & REGISTRAR The Coroner sends the Registrar Form 100A (peach).	DOCUMENTS BETWEEN CORONER & REGISTRAR The Coroner sends the Registrar Form 100B (pink).	DOCUMENTS BETWEEN CORONER & REGISTRAR At the conclusion of the inquest the Coroner will send the Registrar Form 99 (white). # If a trial is held and the inquest is not resumed the Coroner will send the Registrar Form 120.
DOCUMENTS FOR BURIAL AND CREMATION Burial: The Registrar will issue the Certificate for Burial (Green). Cremation: The Registrar will issue the Certificate for Burial (Green). Forms B & C (Certificate of Medical Attendant & Confirmatory Medical Certificate) must also be completed.	DOCUMENTS FOR BURIAL AND CREMATION Burial: The Registrar will issue the Certificate for Burial (Green). Cremation: The Coroner will issue Certificate for Cremation Form E 102 (yellow).	DOCUMENTS FOR BURIAL AND CREMATION Burial: The Coroner will issue a Burial Order Form 101 (white). Cremation: The Coroner will issue Certificate for Cremation Form E 102 (yellow).

KINGSTON CORONERS OFFICER

FOR ALL ENQUIRIES PLEASE CALL TEL: 020 8934 2650