

Want to find out more?

There's really no catch! The government and Kingston partners have given the funding to help unemployed professionals through the economic downturn.

✉ g2b@kingston.ac.uk
☎ 020 8417 7445
www.kingston.ac.uk/g2b

Supported by

THE ROYAL BOROUGH OF KINGSTON
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Kingston University London

KINGSTON
College

for further, higher and adult education

HIGHER EDUCATION

FUNDING COUNCIL FOR ENGLAND

hefce

graduate g2b business

Executive Futures

FREE employment support, advice and networking for unemployed professionals in Kingston

Are you a senior manager?

Are you currently unemployed or at risk of becoming unemployed?

Do you live in the Kingston area?

If so, Executive Futures, a new FREE employment support service can help YOU!

What is 'Executive Futures'?

Part of Kingston's graduate2business initiative, Executive Futures is a new FREE employment support scheme to help unemployed professionals living in Kingston through the current economic downturn.

Who is it for?

Executive Futures is designed specifically for experienced professionals who are currently unemployed or at risk of being unemployed and who are missing the company of other professionals.

Who's behind it?

Executive Futures is part of graduate2business, a joint initiative between the Royal Borough of Kingston, Kingston University, Kingston Chamber of Commerce and Kingston College. It is funded by the above partners and the Higher Education Funding Council for England, through the Economic Challenge Investment Fund. The initiative will run until the end of September 2010.

How can we help you?

- One2One employment advice
- Networking opportunities
- Group workshops
- Interview preparation
- Jobsearch support
- The chance to undertake projects to boost your CV
- Fee remission on future training courses
- A friendly environment
- And it won't cost you a penny!