

Children born between 1 September 2000 and 31 August 2001 are due to transfer from primary to secondary school in September 2012. A list of open evenings for parents and children appears below. These evenings give parents the opportunity to tour the facilities, examine work and meet pupils and teachers. Headteachers address parents at different times during the evening.

There is also the opportunity to visit during the day when parents and children can see the school in action.
